Pamora, Uganda

Jonathan and Rachel have been serving in Uganda since 2018 doing child sponsorship and school development work with Ramona's Reach. They live on the campus of Ramona's Reach and are daily involved in the activities of the ministry in Pamora that includes a boarding home, sustainable projects and a school of 200 children. This Canadian-Ugandan couple has been blessed with 2 boys and a girl, Isaiah, Levi, and Samantha.

Jonathan was born and raised in central eastern Ontario, in a small town called Campbellford, along the Trent River where his father was (and still is) the pastor of a church. Rachel grew up in Kampala, Uganda's capital city. Both her parents were civil servants with her mother working as a social worker for the Kampala city council. In a way, both of them have followed in the footsteps of their parents, in ministry and social work. After spending a half year in Uganda following high school, Jonathan returned to Canada to study Theology at Master's College and Seminary in Peterborough, Ontario. Rachel got her degree in Social Work and Social Administration from Uganda Christian University. Jonathan has a passion for sustainable community development. Rachel is passionate about working with children and their families to promote community empowerment at the grassroots level. She loves seeing people better than they were before. Together their primary focus to answering both these issues is through educating the most vulnerable children in Northern Uganda through sponsorship and scholarship programs all the while engaging with the parents/ caregivers to bring sustainable change to their families and in turn their communities. As a family, they love to engage in sports and play games, they also enjoy reading and gardening.

We are working on changing how Jonathan & Rachel's monthly support is paid. They have been paid out of the Ramona's Reach general account; we would like to change this to where donors personally commit to support them through a monthly sponsorship. Does this interest you?

Your commitment to sponsor them for $_____ a month will make a tremendous impact on their ability to continue working to bring sustainable change to families and in turn their communities in Uganda.
